UNITED WAY GIVING

Congratulations to Kemps Landing Magnet School SCA which held Penny Wars to raise money for the United Way. Students were divided into teams at the school and placed their loose change in a jar with their team's name on it. This loose change was added to the team's total. If any paper money was placed in the jar, that total amount was subtracted from the team's total. Every morning there was an update during the announcements. This year's total amount raised was $2,285 dollars, which was $3.80 for every student at the school. Sixth-grade social studies teacher Chris Nixon, SCA sponsor, spearheaded the drive. Well done!

Virginia Beach Technical and Career Education Center staff and students have exceeded their United Way Campaign Goals, contributing more than $6,000.

Congratulations to Parkway Elementary's SCA for sponsoring a fund drive to benefit the United Way. Students collected $620.76 during the school's week-long drive.

WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICA'S TEACHERS

Congratulations to the following outstanding teachers who have recently been selected for inclusion in Who's Who Among American Teachers. In order to be selected for this honor, a teacher must be nominated by a student who has been selected for inclusion in *Who's Who Among American High School Students, Who's Who Among American High School Students-Sports Edition and students honored in *The National Dean's List. Selected students have the opportunity to honor those teachers who have contributed to their lives and their futures. High school or college students who have been cited for academic excellence themselves are invited to nominate one teacher from their entire academic experience.

Congratulations to Red Mill Elementary School first-grade teacher Michelle R. Young and computer resource specialist Lisa White Alconcel. Thanks to nominations made by former students, both have been included in the 10th edition of Who's Who Among American Teachers.

Windsor Oaks Elementary special education teacher Kellie Henley has recently been nominated for inclusion in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Landstown Middle School is proud to announce that computer science teacher Maureen Martin has been selected for inclusion in the 10th edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers, 2006.

Bayside High School Spanish teacher Nancy Cintron was recently added to the Who's Who Among American Teachers list for the fifth time. Congratulations!

SCHOOLS AND OFFICES – RECOGNITIONS AND AWARDS

Congratulations to Brandon Middle School whose volunteer of the year, Debbie McCormack, was selected the PTA Volunteer of the Year for the state of Virginia.

Congratulations to Salem High School, home of the Visual & Performing Arts Academy, for having had 47 students selected as delegates for the 2007 VMEA All-District Chorus. Students were selected via auditions held at Landstown High School on Saturday, November 4. Thirty-five of Salem's delegates are members of the Visual & Performing Arts Academy choruses while the remaining twelve are members of Salem High School choirs. The choral directors at Salem and the Academy are Don Krudop and Hugh Middleton.

Congratulations to Ocean Lakes High School Competitive Cheerleading coach Carol Seacrist on the squad's earning first place at both the Beach District and Eastern Region meets. This is the first time in school history that the squad earned first place awards in either competition, and the first time the squad will compete in the VHSL State Meet. Seacrist is an English teacher at OLHS.

Congratulations to Plaza Middle School debate coaches and English teacher and social studies teacher respectively Blaine Stiegelmeier and Lloyd Schiffler. The Plaza Middle debate team recently won the city championship! Well done.

Congratulations to the faculty, staff, and students of Princess Anne Elementary School on holding a special luncheon to celebrate the contributions of veterans, new and old, on Monday, November 13th. More than 30 veterans attended. The cafeteria staff prepared a special all-American luncheon items such as pizza, hotdogs, and apple pie. The school's SCA officers served as greeters and guides. Each veteran was invited to join an individual class, ranging from first- through fifth-grade for lunch. Following lunch, the honored guests were invited back to the classroom to share their wartime and life experiences with the students. Representatives from the Francis Land Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution sponsored the luncheon. Ninety-five year old DAR member Mellie Rose attended the event and served as a greeter. Each visiting veteran received a certificate, a card, and cookies. Anna Spence, the school's gifted resource teacher and SCA sponsor, coordinated the event.

Birdneck Elementary School has been awarded a $10,000 grant from the Boeing Corporation. The money will be used to further train teachers in the areas of math and science.

Congratulations to Cox High School for winning the Virginia State Championships for girls' tennis, boys' volleyball, and girls' field hockey.

Congratulations also to Cox High School's newspaper, The Falcon Press, on receiving a Gold Medal from Columbia Scholastic Press Association, First Place from Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society for Scholastic Journalists, and the Trophy Class award from the Virginia High School League for its 2005-2006 publication. This is the fifth consecutive year that The Falcon Press has won Trophy Class, and in recognition of this distinction, the Virginia High School League awarded the newspaper the Colonel Charles Savedge Award for Sustained Excellence.

Congratulations also to Princess Anne High School on having had its newspaper, The Page, receive a Trophy Class award for the third consecutive year. This is the highest award given by the Publications Evaluation Services for the Virginia High School League. The newspaper received superior ratings in all five criteria categories.

On November 15-17, Salem High School was visited by the Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) for a High Schools That Work – National Technical Assistance Visit. Gay Burden, Team Leader from the SREB, said, "this was one of the best national site visits I have ever been a part of and the things that Salem High School are doing could easily serve as a model for other HSTW school sites." Congratulations, Salem!
