SUBJECT: SOLE SOURCE FOR EVERY DAY COUNTS® CALENDAR KITS

DATE: April 12, 2005

Every Day Counts® Calendar Math is a required component of the elementary mathematics program. The activities incorporated in this component provide a realistic formula for teaching a lot of math in a short amount of time. By using this every day, students analyze data, see patterns, explore math relationships, and communicate their thinking to the teacher and to each other. Every Day Counts® helps students construct math understanding over time at an individual pace, through continuous exposure to critical math concepts.

Great Source Education Group, a division of Houghton Mifflin Company, is the sole source of and holds all copyrights to Every Day Counts® Calendar Kits.

Approved for SOB same.
