

Advanced Placement (AP) Exam Scores

	2006-07	2007-08	2008-09	2009-10	2010-11	2011-12	2012-13	2013-14	2014-15	2015-16
Number of Exams Taken	5,509	5,806	6,722	7,212	7,554	7,995	8,671	8,861	9,316	9,712
Number of Exams with Scores of 3 to 5	3,557	3,595	4,013	4,128	4,291	4,691	5,124	5,198	5,391	5,663
Percent of Exams with Scores of 3 to 5	65%	62%	60%	57%	57%	59%	59%	59%	58%	58%
Percent of Exams with Scores of 5	12%	12%	13%	12%	11%	12%	12%	12%	11%	11%
Percent of Exams with Scores of 4	23%	21%	20%	19%	20%	20%	20%	20%	18%	20%
Percent of Exams with Scores of 3	29%	29%	27%	27%	26%	26%	28%	27%	28%	27%
AP Course Enrollment	7,038	7,083	7,891	8,695	9,274	9,967	11,012	11,220	12,110	12,946

Source: Department of Planning, Innovation, and Accountability; Department of Teaching and Learning, Advanced Placement Results for 2015-2016 (dated 11/18/16).

Note: Advanced Placement (AP) is a program of college-level courses and exams offered through secondary schools by The College Board. Colleges and universities often give credit to students who score a three or above on an advanced placement exam.

For additional information about the AP scores reported above, contact the Department of Planning, Innovation, and Accountability (263-1199). For more general information about the AP program and course offerings, contact the Department of Teaching and Learning (263-1070).

©Department of Planning, Innovation, and Accountability, Virginia Beach City Public Schools