COURSE DESCRIPTION
Introduction to Theatre Arts offers students a general overview of theatre and its use and effect in and on culture. Students will be offered the opportunity to act, mime, improvise, design for the stage, read plays, discover theatre history and explore career options in the field of theatre. Students will also be encouraged to attend live theatrical productions. This course is a prerequisite for all other Theatre Arts course offerings.

The standards for Theatre Arts I enable students to survey theatre arts, experience and appreciate theatrical works and performances, and participate in the creative processes of producing and performing theatre. The course emphasizes foundational concepts, ensemble work, and skill development and provides theatrical opportunities for students to determine areas of personal interest.

PERFORMANCE AND PRODUCTION

TI.1 The student will explore theatre as an ensemble art through group interaction by
1. Developing communication strategies;
2. Proposing and selecting alternatives to solve problems while building consensus;
3. Collaborating to implement personal artistic choices; and
4. Respecting the ideas and viewpoints of others.

TI.2 The student will create and strengthen trust and expand listening skills through participation in theatre games and improvisations (e.g., solo and group dramatizations, portrayals of characters in conflict, experiments in rhythm and imagery, pantomimes, playwriting experiments).

TI.3 The student will demonstrate the skills necessary to perform theatrical works by
1. Creating and maintaining an imagined reality;
2. Using the body and voice as expressive tools; and
3. Employing diction and projection so words can be heard and understood by an audience.

TI.4 The student will apply the creative process in storytelling, playwriting, and acting by
1. Creating and writing a monologue and/or scene;
2. Analyzing the physical, emotional, and social dimensions of characters;
3. Employing voice, body, and imagination in role playing;
4. Presenting a memorized monologue and/or scene from a published work; and
5. Investigating and applying audition techniques.

TI.5 The student will demonstrate theatrical direction, including blocking and staging a scene.

TI.6 The student will apply principles of technical theatre by
1. Differentiating among the components of technical theatre;
2. Identifying the responsibilities of designers and technicians;
3. Demonstrating theatre safety practices; and
4. Practicing ethical use of available technology and other resources (e.g., music, visuals, media materials).

TI.7 The student will examine and explain the principles of theatre management.

THEATRE HISTORY AND CULTURAL CONTEXT

TI.8 The student will identify how theatre, television, film, and/or contemporary media reflect the culture in which they are created.

TI.9 The student will make connections between theatre and other fields of knowledge.

TI.10 The student will explore theatre in various historical times and various cultures by
1. Researching historical and cultural information about theatre in other times and places;
2. Examining non-western traditions in drama; and
3. Identifying theatrical activity in the community and the commonwealth.
ANALYSIS, EVALUATION, AND CRITIQUE

TI.11 The student will give, receive, and utilize constructive criticism by
1. Making observations about theatrical performances, projects, and plans, using theatre arts vocabulary; and
2. Applying evaluative criteria to these observations.

TI.12 The student will analyze selected works of dramatic literature by
1. Identifying the elements of character, conflict, setting, plot, theme, and dialogue; and
2. Examining the purpose and meaning of each element; and
3. Developing and applying evaluative criteria.

TI.13 The student will analyze live performances by
1. Identifying the elements of production—acting, directing, and design; and
2. Describing, analyzing, and evaluating artistic choices.

TI.14 The student will use self-evaluation as a tool for growth as a theatre artist.

AESTHETICS

TI.15 The student will define theatre and support that definition, using theatre arts vocabulary.

TI.16 The student will describe how theatrical presentations can entertain, inform, and interpret the human experience.

TI.17 The student will describe a personal response to a theatrical experience, using theatre arts vocabulary.

TI.18 The student will explain how personal experience, culture, and current events shape personal aesthetic opinions and criteria.
