Sociology I
(SO 2500)

One-half elective credit, one semester

Grades 10-12

Counselors are available to assist parents and students with course selections and career planning. Parents may arrange to meet with the counselor by calling the school's guidance department.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Sociology is about people – how they act, interact and react with others. This course is designed to help students better understand their place in the groups to which they belong and the function, influence and interaction of groups that form institutions, neighborhoods and societies.

Sociology I investigates human society, social relations, organization and change. Emphasis is placed on the study of such issues as delinquency, poverty and changing family patterns. Students use surveys, case studies, experiments and interviews.

Sociology I is a one-semester elective and carries one-half unit of credit.
